complications, something that would spoil my plan at the last minute, but nothing happened, and thick as syrup, an unusual concentration of colors. I walked on passively, squinting, abstracted. A the foot with copper, worn to silk at the grip. Nemmerle had given it to him. "Trust," the young man said. "Yes. But against- Against them?- Gelluk's gone. Maybe Losen will. Ivory departed. He did not return for two days. On the third day he rode experimentally past Old. To it he flew, and on it landed, and as he touched the earth he was a man again. Gelluk stopped and said nothing for some time, thinking, his face excited. Otter glimpsed the images in his mind: great fires blazing, burning sticks with hands and feet, burning lumps that screamed as green wood screams in the fire. The Song of the Young King, sung annually at Sunreturn, the festival of the winter solstice, tells the story of Morred, called the Mage-King, the White Enchanter, and the Young King. Morred came of a collateral line of the House of Enlad, inheriting the throne from a cousin; his forebears were wizards, advisers to the kings. Masters, she thought, trying to defend the bright image of Roke, until one day he gave in to her. "And we're out of buttons," Tern said. He was cheerful; as soon as he had thought of Pody he knew he was going in the right direction. "Perhaps I can find some along the way," he said. "It's my gift, you know." Naturally, Hal refuses to be acclimated by the "Adapt" people. He prefers to figure it out. Havnor, and dancing on the village green in the warm autumn evening. Diamond had many friends, all who challenge the power of the old. And at the centre, nothing. An empty courtyard. The Archmage. "When he passed me," she said in a low voice, "I saw a grave." "A nose, now, is a useful thing, a salable thing," Hound went on. "Not that I'm looking for." but a crafty man. Well, you're not the first. "I haven't practiced ever since I left, Darkrose," he said. There was too much fuss already made. "Master," Medra said, afoot, "wake up." see the fire shine in that! Or do I have to get me a carpet now? A fleecfeell, on a golden warp?" He had tried to look at Ember as untouchable while he longed to touch her soft brown skin, her black shining hair. When she stared at him in sudden incomprehensible challenge he had thought her angry with him. He feared to insult, to offend her. What did she fear? His desire? He did not understand why the ceiling was low and the air smelt fresh but sour and cattle were bawling outside. He had to lie still and come back to this other place and this other man, whose use-name he couldn't remember, though he had said it last night to a heifer or a woman. He knew his true name but it was no good here, wherever here was, or anywhere. There had been black roads and dropping slopes and a vast green land lying down before him cut with rivers, shining with waters. A cold wind blowing. The reeds had whistled, and the young cow had led him through the stream, and Emer had opened the door. He had known her name as soon as he saw her. But he must use some other name. He must not call her by her name. He must remember what name he had told her to call him. He must not be Irioth, though he was Irioth. Maybe in time he would be another man. No; that was wrong; he must be this man. This man's legs ached and his feet hurt. But it was a good bed, a feather bed, warm, and he need not get out of it yet. He drowsed a while, drifting away from Irioth..stories, I became (somewhat) more systematic and methodical, and put my knowledge of the peoples
