

RAPPORT DANS LASSEMBLIE GINIRALE DU 21 AOUT 1847

sometimes in another. But it is always." But beyond the rich and the lordly were those called the Men of Power: the wizards. Their power, though little exercised, was absolute. In their hands lay the fate of the long-kingless kingdom of the Archipelago. had her name and with it the power to make her do whatever he wanted, days ago, weeks ago, with a endless supply of slaves for his needs and experiments. It was easy to keep up the protections he. "It'll stop by midday," the wizard told the chickens. He fed them and squelched back to the house with three warm eggs. When he was a child he had liked to walk in mud. He remembered enjoying the cool of it rising between his toes. He still like to go barefoot, but no longer enjoyed mud; it was sticky stuff, and he disliked stooping to clean his feet before going into the house. When he'd had a dirt floor it hadn't mattered, but now he had a wooden floor, like a lord or a merchant or an archmage. To keep the cold and damp out of his bones. Not his own notion. Silence had come up from Gont Port, last spring, to lay a floor in the old house. They had had one of their arguments about it. He should have known better, after all this time, than to argue with Silence. Under the huddle of the grey cloak his hands found only a huddle of clothes and dry bones and a broken staff. prove it, he made it seem that a herd of deer ran through the dining hall, followed by a flight of. let the mare have her head when somebody came among the dogs shouting curses and beating them back. since the murrain. "Good," he said, and that was the last word he spoke to Ivory. Heru, the Queen Mother, gave the emissary the arm ring Morred gave Elfarran; her consort Aimal had given it to her when they married. It had come down through the generations of the descendants of Serriadh, and was their most precious possession. On it was carved a figure written nowhere else, the Bond Rune or Rune of Peace, believed to be a guarantee of peaceful and righteous rule. "Let the Kargish king wear Morred's ring," the Queen Mother said. So, bringing it as the most generous of gifts and in pledge of peaceful intent, Erreth-Akbe went alone to the City of the Kings on Karego-At. That was where Hound found him, miles away from the valley, west of Samory, on the edge of the great forest of Faliern. to the right of the hearth, and took up her mending.
